Obituaries

Paul Chambers
Funeral services for Paul Chambers, 43, Torrance bus driver, who collapsed and died at his home at 1939 Pacific Coast Hwy., Lomita, Sunday, were held yesterday in Stone and Myers Chapel, with the Rev. J. J. Walker officiating.
Mr. Chambers had complained of pains in his arms and chest. His wife called a rescue squad which tried vainly to revive him.
He was a native of Indiana, and a member of the Methodist Church. James Ebbens was soloist at the funeral, while Ellen Swearingen was organist.
He is survived by his widow, Marion; and sisters, Robertine Roubush, of Indiana, and Belva Neal, of Arizona.

Richard Lucero
Gravestone services were held Tuesday in Holy Cross Cemetery for Richard Martin Lucero, six-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lucero, of 2261 W. 203rd St., with the Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiating. He died Friday.
He is survived by his parents; three brothers, Arthur Jr., George, and Romulo; and a sister, Sally, all of Torrance.

Agnes Elaine Wood
Final rites for Mrs. Agnes Elaine Wood, 75, of 1633 Iris Ave., were held Tuesday in the Church of the Nativity, with the Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiating. She died Friday.
A native of New York, she had lived in Torrance about a year. Rosary was recited Monday night in Stone and Myers Chapel, with burial in Holy Cross Cemetery.
She is survived by her husband, Albert, and a daughter, Alberta, of South Pasadena.

AROUND THE GARDENS & PLAZA

Cubs Display Models of Civic Center, School at Scout Meet
By BEVERLEY DYER FA 8-1380
Cub Pack 201-C made a good showing at the Scout-O-Rama which was held this last week end at the Coliseum. The six dens each had made a miniature of buildings in the planned Civic Center, Madrona School, and a topographical map of Torrance. Those were on display in their booth on Friday night and Saturday afternoon, and evening. Many of the parents and friends attended this big yearly Scout affair. The boys took turns in managing their booth and presenting information about Torrance to the interested spectators.
The Torrance Gardens-Plaza area has been growing rapidly lately. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schmidt are the proud new parents of Sally Jean, weighing in a 7 lbs., 14 oz., on May 21 at the California Hospital. She has joined brother and sister at the Schmidt residence at 1220 Maple.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Amos of 1212 Felbar also welcomed a girl, Susan Marie, on June 2, to take her five-pound place among her husky brothers.
L. and Mrs. Ralph Felbar added a fourth son to their home at 2834 Eldorado on June 7. He arrived at Torrance Memorial Hospital, weighing 7 lbs., 6 oz.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ureola, of 2755 Onrado, recently returned from a trip to Kansas where they visited relatives.
Mrs. Al Armistead, of 2769 Onrado, was visiting her mother in Seattle, Wash., at the same time. She reports that her mother, who is ill, is improved.
William Crocker underwent major surgery on June 1 at Torrance Memorial Hospital. His wife, Mrs. Helen Crocker, past president of Madrona PTA, and his two daughters are anxiously awaiting his return to his home at 809 Cranbrook.
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perkin and two children, Gregg and Larry, of 2830 Eldorado, returned from a two weeks vacation spent with Mrs. Perkin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Jorgenson, of Burlingame.
The eighth grade Girl Scout graduates of the Harbor District were honored at a camp fire given at the Archie Shields Camp near Portuguese Bend on June 1. Those from Troop 1293 honored with diplomas were Pat Lewis, Clara Osterlind, Betty Strohmam, Linda Lewis, and Barbara Steiner. Mrs. Fred Steiner and Mrs. Woody Strohmam were guests.
On June 2, this same troop met at their camp site south of Carson to practice rope lashing for a future award.
Mrs. Jack Klinging of 2685 Onrado, Mrs. Dean Capps, of 2850 Eldorado, and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of 1004 Faymirth, enjoyed an evening of bridge at the home of Mrs. W. K. Thames in Rolling Hills when the Tally Hi Bridge Club met on June 2.
On Memorial Day, the Woody Strohmam family, of 1014 Felbar, traveled to Morengo Valley to visit with their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Meyers who have a cabin there.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klinging entertained at a Memorial Day barbecue for a group of family and friends. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDonald and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ches Barto and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Capps and children.
Stephanie Capps was hostess at her sixth birthday party on June 4 to a group of her young friends. Following refreshments served at her home at 2850 Eldorado, the group was transported to an amusement park, where they spent the afternoon in the enjoyment of the rides. Those attending were Laura Cole, of Redondo Beach; Connie Eggleston, of Long Beach; Donna Peroran, Pam Klinging, Pamela Boswell, Deldre Dyer, Cindy Lou Littleton, Mildred Harstad, Gregg Perkin, Donna Hattem and Priscilla Ray. Mrs. Jack Klinging, Mrs. Kenneth Perkin, and Eggleston assisted Mrs. Dean Capps. Mrs. Kenneth Charles came from Westchester to pay her compliments to the young miss.
Mr. and Mrs. William Breaker and children, of 821 Teri, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smiley, of 3101 Opal, enjoyed the long Memorial Day weekend camping, boating, and fishing at Encenada.
